

Have you ever fancied Ski Touring?

ski touring

noun

skiing across open country, walking uphill on skis as well as skiing downhill.

09 April for 7 nights

“If you dream of leaving the crowds behind and carving fresh tracks on virgin snow - then our beginner ski tour course is for you. This is for keen skiers with some off piste experience”

Try your hand at this April, it is the perfect time of year experience it. Learn to Ski Tour with Iain Macluskie - Alpine Action's Resort Director. Ski touring is for those who appreciate gaining altitude, in search of the perfect downhill run under their own steam. Ski touring can get you into areas considered inaccessible to ordinary skiers and offers a completely different mountain experience. It is one of the most fashionable aspects of skiing at the moment. Imagine gliding along or steadily climbing up pristine snow! It doesn't have to be extreme. The touring scene is full of health conscious adults and there is no age limit. There are several benefits, high calorie burning. That helps with the mountain lunches too. Access to the most beautiful skiing for the advanced skiers. The less experienced can walk up suitable terrain and easily ski back to the piste.

What's included?

- Flights & transfer (LGW or MAN)
- 7 nights' chalet accommodation
- Spacious en-suite room
- Breakfast – Cooked & continental
- Afternoon Tea
- Canapes & Aperitif
- 3-Course evening meal with wine
- Cheeseboard
- Your ski touring equipment
- Guided ski & warm up
- 2 guided days and tuition
- Safety equipment

What's not included?

- Lift pass
- Lunches & drinks during the day.
- Insurance

The week's itinerary from 09 April for 7 nights

Day 1 Arrive in resort, welcomed into your chalet for afternoon tea. Then equipment hire & passes are sorted. Meet your guides for an introduction, with a Q & A and safety talks.

Day 2 First day on the slopes, guided ski and warm up.

Day 3 Your first ski tour day.

Day 4 Free skiing day – Staff day off, eat out in local restaurant

Day 5 Your second day of ski touring

Day 6 Your last day of free skiing and de-brief.

Breakfast – cooked and continental

Afternoon Tea – Freshly baked cake, served from 17.00 until 18.30 pm

Canapes and an aperitif served at 19.15

Evening meal with a choice of wines served at 20.00

The warm up and touring session are approximately 3 hours.

The itinerary may change with weather conditions.

All prices are based on two people sharing a room:

- Gatwick flying price £599 + £36 taxes per adult + £140 Ski Tour Package = Total Cost from Gatwick £775 per adult
- Manchester flying price £619 + £36 taxes per adult + £140 Ski Tour = Total cost from Manchester £795 per adult

Ski carriage is £48 per bag return / Single room supplement £299.

Iain Macluskie Alpine Action' Resort Director

With a lifetime of experience and 30 winter season in Meribel and other resorts in Europe, North America and New Zealand. Skiing and now teaching/guiding has been his whole life. As well as being the Alpine Action Resort Director for over 10 season, he is also an ESF Meribel (Ecole du Ski Francais) fully qualified instructor. His speciality is private teaching, guiding and ski touring. He is best at off piste adventures throughout the Three Valleys with lunch stops to suit all group tastes. There not much this man does not know about skiing in the Three Valleys or where is best to eat. Skiing during this week with him will be an experience you will not forget.

